12th Biennial ANZALS Conference

9 December - 11 December 2015
Adelaide, South Australia

Leisure as a Human Right

Call for Papers

The right to access and participate in leisure is enshrined in a number of international conventions and declarations. While there has been global consensus that access to leisure is a human right, there still remain a number of challenges and issues that individuals, communities and nations face in relation to fulfilling this right.

The 12th Biennial ANZALS Conference will provide an open and collegial environment where academics, policymakers and practitioners can come together to discuss and debate a variety of global and local leisure issues.

The conference will provide an avenue for the dissemination of leisure studies research that cuts across a variety of themes including:

- Leisure, health and health promotion,
- Leisure and the natural environment,
- Leisure as an educational tool,
- Leisure and inclusive practice,
- Leisure and the built environment including transport, planning and infrastructure,

Abstracts should be 250-350 words clearly indicating the following information:

- Author name(s) indicating position and affiliation as well as full details of correspondence author.
- Full paper title as it will appear in the conference programme.
- Abstract including Background (outline of the context/literature informing the study or issue), Approach/methodology (indication of the broad theoretical orientation and/or methodological approach) and Significance/Key learnings (description/application of findings or key learnings).
- Full references for any research cited in the abstract (no tables, figures or footnotes).

Abstracts are to be submitted in Word format to anzals2015conference@gmail.com

Deadline for abstracts is Friday 29th May 2015
