YOUR CAREER STARTS HERE

THE HONOURS ADVANTAGE

Our law degrees include professional honours courses to prepare you for a diverse range of legal careers. With options for professional practice and the opportunity to apply your learning at an advanced level, you'll graduate with skills highly valued by employers.

In your final year, you can choose from:

- A placement at our in-house student-run Legal Advice Clinic, law firm, public organisation or industry partner; or
- Our Law Reform course where you have the opportunity to influence policy and change, and become involved with our Law Journal; or
- A research pathway where you can explore and report on a topic of your choice.

MORE WAYS TO STUDY

Our flexible delivery and professional development opportunities are designed to suit your lifestyle, preferred way of learning and career interests. Benefit from:

Full-time or part-time learning

Summer School intensive courses

Two intakes in February or July

Expertise across two fields with a double degree

Mentoring and networking opportunities with industry

Leadership skills employers value through UniSA+

An active student community with the UniSA Law Students Association

Dedicated study plan support at our Law Building

CONNECT WITH INDUSTRY

Complete an internship, engage in an industry project or participate in an overseas exchange during your studies. Get real-world experience by working on current industry challenges, and build your professional skills.

LEARN FROM THE EXPERTS

Our teachers are also researchers, partnering with more than 200 enterprises worldwide, working on solutions to the issues that shape businesses, industries and policies. We are contributing to new knowledge and global understanding, and these insights shape what you learn.

STAND OUT FROM THE CROWD

Our law double degrees allow you to specialise in two fields in just five years of study. Expand your career prospects by pairing law with disciplines such as business, arts, journalism and professional writing, or psychological science. See page 12 for more information.

Fascinated by the legal system and determined to build a career in business law, Travis completed his degree and graduated with First Class Honours.

Taking every opportunity during his studies, Travis participated in the Ashurst Australian Private Law Moot Competition, completed internships and carried out legal research for leading barristers, and also became the Founder and Editor of UniSA's Student Law Review.

“My advice is to take these opportunities as they arise. The skills I have developed from my time at UniSA will hold me in good stead as I enter my career in law.”

Travis is now working for DMAW Lawyers in Adelaide.

Making the most of learning opportunities were key to Phoebe's success at university.

“Law developed my interests in justice and politics, while my journalism studies indulged my curiosity and love of telling people's stories.”

To gain a competitive edge, Phoebe also developed professional experience throughout her degree.

“I undertook placements in television newsrooms, radio stations, law firms and the Attorney General's Department. I also did an exchange in Switzerland and co-created UniSA's law student magazine.”

Now Federal Political Reporter for Ten Eyewitness News in Canberra, Phoebe credits her career success to her studies.

“My experiences at UniSA helped me develop invaluable skills transferrable to industry and were critical in securing my position with Channel Ten – UniSA has prepared me well for my career.”

STUDY AT UniSA – THE BASICS

Minimum entry requirements for undergraduate bachelor and associate degrees

APPLYING WITH YEAR 12

Applicants are required to have successfully completed the South Australian Certificate of Education (SACE) with:

- a competitive Selection Rank (ATAR); AND
- the fulfilment of the program's prerequisite requirements (where applicable).

Applicants may also be eligible to compete for entry if they have completed the program's prerequisite requirements and have completed one of the following:

- an interstate or overseas qualification considered by the University as equivalent to SACE; or
- the International Baccalaureate Diploma with a minimum score of 24 points.

ADJUSTMENT FACTORS

Universities in South Australia include ATAR-related adjustment factors (previously known as bonus points) to Australian high school students applying for entry into university via the following schemes:

- The Universities Equity Scheme – provides additional points for students coming from specified schools, as well as individuals experiencing disadvantage.
- The Universities Language, Literacy and Mathematics Adjustment Scheme – provides additional points for students who successfully complete a language other than English, or specified English and Mathematics subjects.

FEES

All domestic undergraduate students at the University of South Australia are in Commonwealth-supported places. Students in these places pay a contribution of their fees depending on the program chosen and the contribution band in which those courses are classified (see table below). The amount of your student contribution also depends on the unit value of your courses of study.

As per the Australian Government guidelines, the student contribution amounts for 2018 are:

BAND	AREA OF STUDY	STUDENT CONTRIBUTION For one year of full-time load (1 EFTSL)
1	Humanities, behavioural science, social studies, foreign languages, visual and performing arts, clinical psychology, nursing and education	$6,444
2	Computing, built environment, health, engineering, surveying, agriculture, Mathematics, statistics, science	$9,185
3	Law, dentistry, medicine, veterinary science, accounting, administration, economics, commerce	$10,754

Some postgraduate programs are also Commonwealth-supported (or CSP), while others are full fee-paying (the fees for these are listed on each applicable program in this guide and are based on an equivalent full-time student load). For more information on fees including eligibility for Commonwealth-supported places, deferring your student contribution through HECS-HELP, FEE-HELP loans, or fee information relating to international students please visit:
