As part of his legacy beyond literature, the Discworld Foundation — set up by international bestselling author, the late Sir Terry Pratchett — has established a perpetual scholarship in his name through the University of South Australia.

Applications are being sought from proven high achievers in the humanities and social sciences where the research proposed is inspired by the work of Sir Terry Pratchett and fits within the Hawke Research Institute's theme of 'Identity Transformations'.

THE SCHOLARSHIP INCLUDES:

- Up to $35,000 a year for a period of two years
- Study at The Long Room Hub, Trinity College Dublin for up to 12 months
- Two annual payments of $5,000 for accommodation and travel expenses
- Full fee waiver for the Masters by Research

The scholarship is available to a commencing full-time Masters by Research student enrolled through the University of South Australia’s Hawke Research Institute.

Applications close 5pm Wednesday 2 December 2015.
