

University of
South Australia

Study and life: supporting students to get the most out of their University of South Australia experience

Mary Ann Seow
Consultant: International
Learning and Teaching

Consider your Student and their needs

University of
South Australia

Student Journey

- Pre-arrival
- The first six weeks
- Studying at UniSA
- Services and support for International students
- Graduation and beyond

Pre-Arrival Support

Information online for new students

- Pre-departure information
- Information about Australia and Adelaide
- Money, visas and overseas health cover

Arrival in Adelaide

- On arrival reception (airport) and transfer to accommodation
- Short term accommodation
- Accommodation
 - Rental data base

Orientation for International Students

- Welcome Week for international students
- Orientation
- Integrating International students with Campus/Division/School/Program activities

Studying at UniSA

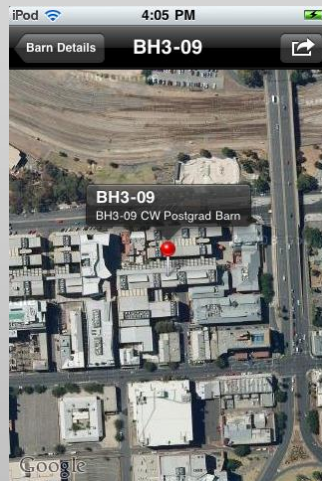

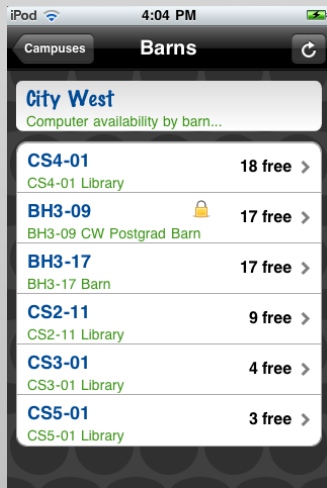

- Program and course support
- Student Experience
- English Language Proficiency
- UniSA's online environment
- Library
- Learning spaces
 - New Student Learning Centre

Online @ UniSA

- Student portal
- Learnonline – UniSA's new LMS
- Student email – email for life
- Mobile apps
- UniSA's online environment

Services and support for International Students

- Learning and Teaching Unit
 - International student officers
 - Language and Learning advisers, counsellors, careers advisers, disability advisers, research education advisers
 - Student safety and support (24x7)
- USASA
- Listening to our students – quality improvement

Towards Graduation and Beyond

- Further study
- Careers
 - Careers services
 - MyCareerPlan
 - Careers management skills
 - Careers fairs
 - Expo
 - Industry specific days
 - International Careers Day

Thank you and Questions

University of
South Australia