

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PRACTICE EDUCATOR ONLINE SYMPOSIUM

Friday 18th February 2022

A Collaboration between the University of South Australia, Flinders University & The University of Adelaide

Zoom Registration

Please register your attendance prior to 17th February 2022. You will then be provided with the zoom link closer to the event.

Online Program

8:45am

Zoom waiting room opens

Participants are encouraged to review their settings

9:00am

Welcome & Acknowledgement of Country

Facilitators: The University of South Australia, Flinders University and The University of Adelaide

9:15am

Framing current student placement experiences during Covid. What does it mean for me right now?

Updates, tips and placement accommodations from the Universities

Facilitators: The University of Adelaide

10:30am

Telehealth and student placements: discussion and lived experiences

Facilitators: The University of South Australia

Panel: Eliza Huppatz, Jothie Zwar & recent UniSA graduate

11:30am

Students' mental health on placement

Self-care for educators and modelling for students

Facilitator: Dr Gareth Furber, Clinical Psychologist, Flinders University

12:30pm

Lunch and self-care activity

1:30pm

Students' mental health on placement (continued)

2:30pm

Addressing the current recruitment climate

Supporting Practice Educators to support students meet their SPEF-R2 objectives

Facilitators: The University of South Australia

3:15pm – 3:30pm

Closing

Facilitators: The University of South Australia, Flinders University and The University of Adelaide

A recording and copy of the presentations will be available following the event.