Jury Burden Pty Ltd

Series 266, 288

HISTORY

The architectural practice of Jury Burden Pty Ltd was formed in the 1970s by Lynton D. Jury and Robert M. Burden who were both registered architects in South Australia. Robert Michael Burden gained a Diploma in Architecture from the South Australian Institute of Technology in 1966 and was made an Associate Member of the South Australian Chapter of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects in 1966. Lynton Douglas Jury graduated from the South Australian School of Mines in 1956 with an Associate Diploma in Architecture. He became an Associate member of the South Australian Chapter of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects in 1957. Between 1967 and 1970 Jury was in practise with Earnest Keal before he joined with Burden to form Jury Burden Pty Ltd which had offices at 312 South Terrace, Adelaide.

Note: Jury Burden Pty Ltd was wound up on 27.8.1993; the partners thenceforward operated separately
