

The Year of the Nurse and Midwife media plan 2020

Rosemary Bryant AO
Research Centre

Celebrating the Year of the Nurse and Midwife
2020

The Rosemary Bryant AO Research Centre is supporting and acknowledging the critical work that all Nurses and Midwives do in Australia and around the world.

Check out the RBRC website:
www.unisa.edu.au/research/rbrc

January Aboriginal Nurse and /or Midwife Masters of Research Grant Opportunity	February Core Set of Patient-Reported Outcomes for Population-based Cancer Survivorship Research	March 20 Years of Midwifery	April Nurse led model of care in the management of Chronic Disease Covid-19 Nurses & Midwives impact on global security
May Year of the Midwife Year of the Nurse Establishment of the Australasian Nursing and Midwifery Clinical Research Network	June Nursing and Midwives Workforce burn-out report	July Enhancing in hospital care for Aboriginal people with cancer	August 2019 Nursing and Midwifery Climate Survey Report – What we have learnt
September Evidence based management pathway for people with dementia	October Climate Change – Combined Reports	November Compassion in Nursing Predictive Risk Modelling and Skin report	December Our Future Impact – Where to Next

@RBRCunisa @UniversitySA @ANMFSA @RBF_AU

#Nursesdoresearch
#midwivesdoresarc
#NursingNowAustralia

University of South Australia

Rosemary
Bryant
Foundation