Tax Clinic

Providing free, confidential advice, representation, and education to unrepresented taxpayers.

ABOUT

The UniSA Tax Clinic has been established to provide accessible services to members of the community seeking assistance with their tax affairs.

Under the supervision of qualified tax professionals, the Clinic is staffed by students who can support unrepresented taxpayers across a range of tax matters.

Trained in professional conduct, Clinic staff are courteous, respectful and professional at all times. Client information and enquiries are treated as completely confidential.

The Clinic is located at UniSA City West campus and open to Australian residents and small businesses without a tax agent.

SERVICES & FEES

Fees

Student delivered advice      Free

Services

- Professional and confidential advice regarding your tax matters
- Representation with respect to tax return lodgments and tax debts
- Education to help you comply with taxation requirements
- Advocacy on your behalf to the ATO

Your initial appointment will be an interview of up to 1 hour, with 1-2 UniSA students who will then review your tax issue with a tax professional and provide advice, or an alternative recommendation.

Appointments are essential.

TEACHING & LEARNING

The Clinic offers an important service to our community and provides an opportunity for undergraduate and postgraduate business students to use their tax knowledge and develop professional skills. The student-run, in-house Clinic equips students with the business skills and knowledge required for professional tax practice.

COMMUNITY CLINICS

UniSA also offers a range of other clinics for the community including:

- Allied Health clinics
- Legal Advice Clinic
- Marketing Clinic
